

BEING AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF MY COMMUNITY IS IMPORTANT TO ME

I seek out opportunities that align with my interests and values, and I take pride in contributing to the success of each group that I am a part of.

Whether it is my residential community or a volunteer organization, I know that each person's commitment is crucial to achieving a common goal. I do my part to keep my community safe and comfortable, and I comply with the standards of upkeep to maintain its standards.

In addition to conforming to community standards, I am also willing to respect the interests of each member. Although I may have my own views, I believe that it is important to honor the decisions made by the majority.

One of my favorite ways to give back is through outreach programs. I enjoy volunteering with a group that feeds homeless people, and I believe that each person's effort is crucial to its success. By taking an active role, I am able to make a positive impact and inspire others to do the same.

In my work meetings, I play an active role by sharing ideas and encouraging others to do the same. Even if my idea is overlooked, I am happy to have played a part in the process of getting to a favorable outcome.

For me, community life is about unity and taking powerful action together. By living in harmony with others, I am able to play an active role and contribute to positive outcomes.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1

How do I choose which communities to join?

2

How regularly do I volunteer to assist with outreach programs?

3

How do I know when it is time to assume a new role in a group?